LEAGUE COVENANT PROGRESSING

By FRED S. FERGUSON

PARIS April 12—Belief in an Easter peace today has given way to hopes of a May day peace. While the most optimistic admitted the last hope of peace by April 20 apparently had vanished there was a general feeling that the treaty would be ready for presentation to the Germans by May 1 at least.

Persons close to the "big four" intimated that an agreement had virtually been reached now on all of the important questions. The military, naval and aerial terms of the treaty have been completed for weeks.

The revised League of Nations covenant is ready for submission to the Plenary Council.

BURLERSON'S REASONS

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON, April 12—The recent 20 per cent. increase in telegraph rates was necessitated by the same reason that various other industries increased the price of production and service as much as 100 per cent. Postmaster General Burleson announced today. In a signed statement setting forth his reasons for boosting the telephone and telegraph rates, he declared the time has now come when it is no longer possible to render telegraph service to industries at pre-war prices.

BETTER NEWS FROM RUSSIA

LONDON, April 12—The crisis in northern Russia has passed according to an Archangel dispatch to the Post today dated Thursday. It was stated that the Bolshevik army on the Archangel front now numbers 30,000.

RAINBOW DIVISION HURRYING HOME

BREST, April 12—All of the facilities of Camp Pontanezen were being devoted today to getting the Rainbow division started home on record time. A review will be given Secretary Baker, General Pershing, and General Petain at the camp Monday. The Rainbow unit will be given the place of honor in the review.

ITALY NOT ENTIRELY SATISFIED

(By United Press)

ROME, April 12—The Italian press continued today to take a firm attitude regarding Italy's claims. The gist of the newspaper's arguments was that the Italian cabinet could not sign a peace that would not entitle them to Trieste and Dalmatia.

DETROIT SOLDIERS
IN RUSS MUTINY

Py Raymond Clapper
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, April 12—Bolshevik propaganda is officially held responsible for the mutiny of an American infantry company in northern Russia.

Chief of Staff March announced today that Company I of the 339 Inf. comprised the offending troops and said that the question put by the men to their officers was the same as the Bolsheviks in propaganda advised them to ask. Company I is composed almost entirely of Detroit men.

Railroad communications have been completed to the most southern post held by the Allies in Northern Russia, March declared. This was accomplished by completion of the Onda ridge which enables supplies to be moved uninterrupted from Murmansk to the interior and assures abundance of food supplies and ammunition for the Allied forces, March said.

I saw it in The Progress.

WAS WELL KNOWN IN CLEARFIELD

Miss Ollie Hummel, of Big Run, formerly employed as a clerk in Leitzinger's store and with a host of friends in Clearfield, died at Akron, Ohio, on Thursday evening. Her funeral will occur at her late home in Big Run tomorrow afternoon.

United States Steel opened at 98 1/2 up 1-4, Mexican Petroleum 183 up 1-4, Marine, Preferred 114 5-8 up 1-2, Southern Pacific 103 1-2 off 1-8, Bethlehem Steel B. 76 7-8 up 7-8.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES AT
CLEVELAND

Burnley Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Shaw, formerly well known residents of this community, died at his home in Cleveland, Ohio, on Thursday, October 3d, 1918, after an illness of but four days, aged about 42 years. He leaves a widow and one child.

GERMAN HELMETS AS LOAN PRIZES

These Full Dress Headpieces Were Intended For the Adornment of the Hun Army That Captured Paris, But They Got There by Freight.

Eighty-five thousand German helmets, captured by Allied troops in Coblenz, are to be awarded as prizes by Federal district committees in the Victory Liberty Loan Campaign.

In the picture shown above, taken on the Treasury steps in Washington, may be seen a number of the helmets just unpacked from the cases in which they arrived from Germany. Frank R. Wilson, director of Loan publicity, created a panic in the helmet market by buying the entire 85,000 allotment from the War Department for $1. It cost the German government more than that amount to manufacture each one of the helmets.

These helmets were a special supply held in reserve for a triumphal entry into Paris. They were to be given to the German soldiers as a prize for their valor.

RESPECTED BIGLER
RESIDENT DIES AS
RESULT OF INJURY

Alex McBlain, a well known Bigler citizen, died at the Clearfield hospital about 8:30 p. m. from loss of blood and shock following an accident which befell him in the clay mines of the Williams Grove Brick Works at Bigler yesterday afternoon.

Mr. McBlain, who was an experienced miner, was at work in the mine shortly after dinner yesterday when caught by a fall of clay. In falling a lump of clay struck him on the head and knocked him down, cutting a severe gash in his scalp but failing to render him unconscious. One leg was caught under the clay and fractured both above and below the knee, while the knee cap was also dislocated.

When pinioned by the clay Mr. McBlain called to Charley Merritt who was working in an adjoining room and heedless of danger from a further fall Mr. Merritt hastened to the injured man and hastily rolling the rocks off him picked him up in his arms and carried him outside and called for assistance.

Willing hands soon made Mr. McBlain as comfortable as possible and then summoned Dr. Waterworth and the ambulance from the Clearfield hospital. When Dr. Waterworth arrived he administered first aid and the patient who expressed himself as being alright, was placed in the ambulance and brought at once to the hospital.

The fractures were compound and the blood vessels surrounding them severely crushed and torn and the patient became so weakened from shock and loss of blood that blood transfusion was about to be resorted to in the hope of saving his life, but before this could be done he suffered a sinking spell and passed away.

Alex McBlain was an upright, industrious, good citizen and his untimely end is a severe blow to his loved ones and large circle of friends.

He leaves a widow and four children. James McBlain, of Fourth street, is a brother of the deceased.

JOE WAS THERE WITH THE
BELLOW

The presence of mind, strong lungs and calliope voice of Joe Foreman, Jr. of Osceola, a freight conductor on the Pennsylvania, averted a tragedy at the Osceola station of the Pennsylvania about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Foreman's train was shifting cars at the siding to the Ghem mine on the mountain above Osceola station yesterday. A loaded steel car was standing on the main track to which the caboose was attached. The crew was busily engaged with the engine getting the other loads off of the siding while Conductor Foreman in the caboose was rapidly writing out his report. Several "loads" were shoved out to the main track and the engine failing to gauge the distance properly ran onto the main track with a little more than ordinary force. The automatic coupler failed to work with the result that the lone car and caboose started back down the mountain.

The conductor was prompt to discover the dilemma he was in and grabbing a brakstick he beat it out to the loaded coal car and attempted to step the cars. The brakes were unable to overcome the momentum on the steep grade and the nervous trainman saw he was in for the ride of his life. It is two miles from the Ghem mine to Osceola and as the road simply falls down the mountain in this distance some idea can be gotten of the speed of the runaway.

The conductor knew the afternoon passenger train to Tyrone was due about the time he was having his ride for life and instead of seeking safety by jumping he got out on the front platform of the wildly rocking cabin car and bellowed the alarm at the crossings. When the curve above the Osceola depot was reached the now terrified conductor saw the passenger train on the track discharging passengers with a crowd of at least one hundred people passing to and fro over the track on which his runaway train was proceeding at lightning speed. His vociferous warning was heard in time and the frightened people scattered every which way as the cars flew by like a flash. Two baggage trucks loaded with baggage and express were in the path of the runaway and the trucks were hurled several hundred feet while their contents littered the landscape all about the station and down the track toward the yard.

Conductor Foreman succeeded in stopping his wild charges on the flat

AMERICAN IMMORTALS

HAROLD I. JOHNSTON,
Private, First Class, Co. A, 356th
Infantry.

Private Johnston was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross for conspicuous gallantry, near Penfil, France, November 9, 1918.

When information was desired as to the enemy's position on the opposite side of the river Meuse, Private Johnston, with another soldier, volunteered without hesitation, and swam the river to reconnoiter the exact location of the enemy. He succeeded in reaching the opposite bank, despite the evident determination of the enemy to prevent a crossing. Having obtained the information, he again entered the water for his return. This was accomplished after a severe struggle, which so exhausted him that he had to be assisted from the water, after which he rendered his report of the exploit. His mother, Mrs. Belle Renshaw, lives in Denver, Colo.

COUNTY FINANCES
IN GREAT SHAPE
AT END OF YEAR

The Raftsmen's Journal has taken the trouble to analyze the figures of the county auditor's statement as published in the various county newspapers and from that analysis has brought to light some interesting data. The Journal declares that the county commissioners and their County Home staff have succeeded in establishing a lower cost per capita for maintaining the poor house than during the previous year. If the county commissioners and their efficient steward have done this they have something on every other house keeper in the county and deserve all the credit in the world for it. Following is the article taken from Brother McQuown's newspaper.

The Commissioners' Annual Statement of receipts and expenditures for the year 1918 as compiled by the auditors make a remarkable showing of the manner in which the finances of the taxpayers were handled during the past year, and on account of there being such an unusual disturbance in all business circles, it appears that the county has not been disturbed as a result thereof.

General Fund

We notice that a balance remains in the county fund in the sum of $51,820.17 in the poor fund $24,411.84 after all bills have been paid for the current year and out of the bond fund of $110,000.00 there appears a total credit of $106,532.42 cash in the treasurers hands.

Road and Bridge Bond Fund

The bond fund represents a loan of $110,000.00 which was taken out in 1917 to meet the expenses required in the construction of roads and bridges included in this the Leonard bridge at a cost of $62,378.22. This loan represents all expenses in connection with the 900 foot improvement; the bridge its approaches, cost of the land from which the embankments were removed and the cost of removing these embankments, so as to eliminate the danger from the approaches to the bridge on the railroad crossings. In addition to this appropriations were made toward the improvement of Riverview bridge, lower Clearfield bridge, Curwensville bridge, La Jose bridge, Westover bridge and other bridges, and the county's share in the construction of state road. A levy of one-half mill has been made to satisfy this bond, and at the present income derived from it, eight years will be sufficient to wipe out a large proportion of this, the county's only bonded indebtedness.

Poor Fund

With reference to the Poor District with the assistance of capable management at the County Home, the commissioners have been successful in establishing a lower cost of per capita maintenance at the County Home than in former years, notwithstanding the 100 per cent increase in the cost of food products, etc. The aggregate expenditure in the Poor Fund was $69,271.62, of this amount the total almshouse expenditure was $24,035.89. Over $25,000 was expended for maintenance of insane and feeble minded persons chargeable to the Poor District, and the Children's Home cost the taxpayers $5,176.00. It might be well to note this item, as so many people are of the opinion that the Children's Home is maintained by outside charity which is not the case.

We believe that the above figures are sufficient to arouse the interest of the taxpayers in the statement that although all other departments of business were subject to increased demands by reason of the war, yet our county fathers have been able to conserve a larger balance in each of its departments than in previous years and at the same time have attended each and every call that has been made upon them.

at the lower end of the yard and remained where he was until his thoroughly frightened crew arrived with their engine and hauled him back up the hill.

It was a narrow escape for the people at the station and all were loud in their praise of the nifty conductor.

GOOD ROADS ASSOCIATION DISCUSSES
CURWENSVILLE AND PENFIELD ROADS

The local good roads meeting at the arbitration room last evening was very well attended by local road boosters and business men and a highly satisfactory session was the result.

A. E. Leitzinger, President of the County Association presided and County Vice President Peter Gearhart was also present.

The matter of securing releases from property owners living along the route was taken up and it was found that all had signed but three, and County Commissioner Spencer volunteered to take the matter up and in conjunction with Mr. Bennett of the Highway department, see that all difficulties of this nature was met and satisfactorily disposed of.

Mr. Spencer also stated that the real reason that bids for construction of this road had not already been asked for by the State Highway department was because of difficulty with the B. R. & P. railway company regarding the proposed underground crossing at Bailey's, the overhead bridges at Hogback and near C. & M. junction. Mr. Spencer in company with Commissioner Dale and County Solicitor W. C. Miller visited Harrisburg the first of the week for the purpose of discovering the apparent delay in getting work underway on this road and Commissioner Sadler informed them that the reasons mentioned above were the sole cause of the delay and that as soon as these matters could be disposed of bids would be advertised for.

The Public Service Commission and representatives of the B. R. & P. had a session in Harrisburg yesterday to solve the problems concerning the crossing and the bridges and no doubt a policy was agreed upon.

The Highway Commissioner promised that bids for this road would be advertised for within the next thirty days.

President Leitzinger had read a letter and resolutions received from the Curwensville Association advocating speeding up this road work and following the reading Hon. Joseph E. Phillips offered the following resolution:

Whereas it is the sense of the members of the Clearfield County Good Roads association that the reason is advancing and the need of improvement on routes 57 and 59 at the points between Blue Ball and Woodland; the proposed improvement between Curwensville and Clearfield also the part to be reconstructed from Sandy township line through Brady township near Jefferson line, should receive prompt and immediate attention.

And Whereas, the Curwensville branch of the Clearfield County Good Roads association have signified by resolution and notice that evidence of negligence on the part of persons having this work in charge is evident and have appealed to the various bodies having the matter in charge to start the improvement. Therefore be it

Resolved, that a request be made to all persons now in position to assist in procuring prompt action on the part of the State Highway department to the end that work on these improvements be started without further unnecessary delay.

That a copy of these resolutions be mailed to the County Commissioners, the DuBois, Harrisburg and Clearfield branches of the State Highway department and the County Commissioners and the B. R. & P. railway company, with the added request that each and all use every endeavor to get construction underway on this route without delay.

The resolution was seconded by C. C. Norris and unanimously adopted.

The matter of the improvement of the Penfield road was then taken up and discussed at length, J. D. Connolly, F. G. Harris, James Mitchell, Grant Butler, Peter Gearhart, Joseph E. Phillips and President Leitzinger taking part in the discussion, which proved the necessity for the improvement of the road, which is a direct route to Ridgway, Emporium and that section of the State.

E. J. Westcott, County Superintendent of Roads, was asked what assistance in repairing this road could be looked for from the Highway department and he stated that inasmuch as the road was not on a state route no State aid could be given, except that he would co-operate with the local committee in every way possible for him to do so in any effort to bring about a better condition on the road and would be willing to supply any tools they had available and not in use.

Mr. Phillips then moved that a committee of seven be appointed by the chair to meet with the Lawrence township supervisors and take up with them the matter of the improvement of the Penfield road through that township and solicit their assistance in this work; that this committee be authorized to solicit voluntary contributions to assist in the work and be further empowered to meet with the Pine and Huston township supervisors and good roads association and appoint a day or days to begin the improvement at as early a time as it is possible to do so and then carry out a satisfactory conclusion.

The motion was seconded by J. D. Connolly and unanimously adopted.

The chair then appointed the committee as follows: John M. Chaney, Wm. Thompson, Frank G. Harris, Grant Butler, Albert D. Bigler, A. Kline and J. E. Phillips.

The matter of the proposed change in Route 57 between Woodland and Blue Ball was then taken up for discussion and Mr. Connolly moved that this meeting go on record as favoring the change proposed by the State Highway department in Route 57 between Woodland and Blue Ball in order to eliminate the many dangerous grade crossings and grade on the present traveled road between these points. The motion was seconded by Mr. Norris and unanimously adopted.

County President Leitzinger announced that the regular meeting of the Clearfield County Good Roads association would be held in the Court House on Tuesday afternoon April 17th, under the provisions of the by-laws of the association and asked that all road boosters attend as matters of great importance to the roads of the county would come up at that meeting.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

SURPRISE PARTY

About twelve friends of Mrs. Roden Shaffer surprised her last evening at the home of her parents Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Seag on South 5th street. The evening was spent in playing "500" and sewing.

Mrs. Shaffer leaves today for Pittsburgh to await the arrival of her husband from overseas.

DEBS TO SURRENDER HIMSELF AT
CLEVELAND TODAY FOR HIS CRIME

Terra Haute, Ind., April 12—Eugene V. Debs will go to Cleveland today and give himself up to Federal authorities to serve a ten year prison sentence for violating the Espionage act in a speech at Canton, Ohio. The United States Attorney telegraphed Debs early today that the United States marshal would not come to Terra Haute for him. Debs planned to leave Terra Haute shortly after noon.

In a final interview he said: "I can distinctly hear the echo of my case through 10,000 miles of space in the mutiny of American soldiers in Archangel. I am wondering how many people realize the importance of this seemingly unimportant instance.

Socialists of the Fifth Congressional district are planning a big demonstration here May 1, to protest against the imprisonment of Debs. They are of the opinion that executive clemency will be granted him.

Save The Pieces Is Cry Of The German People

By FRANK J. TAYLOR

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Berlin, March 20, (By Mail)—Germanians began their foreign office much in the light of a government savings department. Its aim is to save as much out of the wreckage of defeat and collapse of the old regime as possible. Public feeling is extremely bitter against Erzberger and the armistice commission for not gaining more concessions, and hopes have turned largely to the foreign office to recover all that is lost.

There are high hopes, as the foreign office realizes, but the German people have been brought up to expect wonders from their Government. In this relation the conception of average German has not changed. He gives support to the Government only when he is obliged to, yet he expects it to accomplish miracles in its dealings with outside powers. It is a remnant of the old "Deutschland über alles" days, a viewpoint drilled into Germans from the days of their youth. It cannot be changed in a month.

The foreign office, then, has to make the most of a bad situation, and with the hope rather than the belief that it can save something for the republic has made its claims on status quo basis, which the foreign office feels Germany is entitled to through President Wilson's Fourteen Points, which are the byword in Germany. These points are Germany's only hope, is the feeling in the foreign office.

With these as the basis for claiming a status quo settlement, the foreign secretary, Count Brockdorff-Rantzau, in his reichstag speech, demanded the return of the German colonies, free access to the world's commerce, a plebiscite in Alsace-Lorraine, no indemnities to be paid by Germany, though he declared the republic ready to make good the damage done by its assault on civilians in Belgium and northern France, as the main demands of Germany, which should enter the League of Nations at once as an equal.

There were a number of other points which the foreign office is prepared to dispute, prisoner question, the blockade, the Polish boundary, but which are regarded more in the light of protests rather than fundamentals, though the Polish boundary question worries Germans extremely. The series of protests both from the foreign office and the armistice commission are considered part of the game of saving as much as possible.

The 2 others and this policy on the part of the Germans, carried out through the foreign office, may be termed either "imperialistic" or simply "selfish." It depends upon the point of view you have. If you look at it from an Entente perspective and feel that the Germans expect to get everything they claim, which could in a trying and thankless position, hardly be more if they had won the war you undoubtedly term the claims "imperialistic."

On the other hand, after talking to members of the foreign office, you find that even they do not expect to get what they are demanding nor do they anticipate results from their protests. They feel that they are doing the only thing possible to save something for their country. They do not feel they are imperialistic and feel that their claims are simply defensive. From this point of view it is selfish.

Every condition forced upon Germany is taken bitterly and the motives of the Entente are mistrusted to the extreme. An incident in the foreign office after the February armistice renewal will illustrate the feeling. A group of secretaries were expostulating against the harshness of the terms, and after arguing the various motives, asked an American present if he thought the terms were hard and what the Entente wanted to do with Germany.

"I suppose the Entente wants to make Germany modest," he replied. "Don't you think we are modest?" they asked in surprise.

"Frankly, no I don't," said the American. The answer caused great amazement among the Germans.

In this connection it is interesting to note that few Germans believe they were defeated militarily. Invariably you are corrected if you make a break by mentioning "the defeat of the German armies" and you are put right, in the following light: Germany quit because she accepted the Fourteen Points of President Wilson and because she was hungry and because there was a change in the spirit of the people, or rather the pacifists got power and threw out the militarists. But the armies were not defeated, say Germans.

Germans argue, therefore, that they should make peace on a basis of equality, and say their present defenseless position is due to the idealism with which they disbanded their armies, feeling the Entente would do the same. When you first hear this line of reasoning you are inclined to think it is a bluff. But the constant repetition by intelligent men and women finally convinces you that the German people believe they were undefeated in the field, and they think they are in their present predicament because the Entente was not faithful to the armistice term.

The public statement of Erzberger that the first armistice was signed on the frantic orders of Hindenburg, whose army had collapsed, or the public utterances of men who have dared to say Germany was defeated, has not changed public opinion. This prevailing idea makes clearer the demands of Germany.

To the credit of the foreign office, it should be said, that department is everything they claim, which could in a trying and thankless position, hardly be more if they had won the

WORKERS PRIMED FOR THE VICTORY LIBERTY LOAN

Possessing experience, efficiency and a better organization than ever, a veteran army of more than 40,000 Loan Workers is facing with confidence the big job of putting the Victory Liberty Loan "over the top" in Pennsylvania.

It has been one of the most encouraging features of the preliminary work this rallying of the "old guard" of previous campaigns to the call for the last big "drive". Every County in the Third Federal Reserve District has its veteran organization at "attention" awaiting the signal to go into action.

Not only are the veterans in line; many thousands of new volunteers are being enlisted for emergency service of one form or another. Requisitions at Victory Liberty Loan Headquarters for workers' credentials indicate that fully 100,000 persons in the Third District will be in service before the drive is ended. But the main reliance is, of course, placed on the efforts of the 40,000 veterans.

This big army will be directed in its work by veteran leaders. In only a very few counties has there been a change in the Chairmanship. These few changes are due to ill health or intervention of business affairs. The leaders, as well as the men in ranks, are "sticking it out". And this "standing to it" has created optimism which is making itself felt in the attitude of the public toward the Loan.

The State Campaign is in charge of the Advisory Committee for Pennsylvania, of which E. McLain Watters is Chairman, with Headquarters at Philadelphia. Just back from a tour of the Central and Southern Counties, Mr. Watters reports zeal and enthusiasm equal to, if not surpassing the spirit of previous drives. County Chairmen are directed in their work by group representatives. The District has been divided into seven groups of counties, and the representatives for each group is a member of the Advisory Committee. This arrangement, which is new in the present campaign, gives thorough control and places the Advisory Committee in close working contact with the County campaigns.

It is conceded that no handicap could equal the predicament faced by the Loan Organization during the Fourth Loan Campaign. Then, the influenza epidemic put the bar on every phase of organized effort. It nullified the team work that the splendid force of workers was prepared to put into the campaign.

If the Fourth Loan could be made a success, while death and sickness were invading almost every household, the Victory Loan simply can't lose' is the way the workers feel about it.

The publicity end of the Organization is particularly well developed in each County with Local Chairmen in charge and this also applies to the Speaker's Division.

isfy German public demands. The foreign office is convinced that open and direct dealing with the world is necessary, after the defeat of the blundering old regime, diplomacy, and at present the foreign office needs to be honest with the German people, rather than with foreign powers, to complete its self-cleansing

AS STYLES CHANGE

Women Who Can Sew Manage to Keep Step With Fashion.

Interesting Little Frock of Taffeta or Printed Foulard Offered as Early Spring Model.

Each season's styles have such a way of overlapping that the average woman just about completes her wardrobe when along comes information as to what is to be worn in the season immediately to come.

Fortunately during the past two or three seasons there have been very few radical style changes, and the woman who can sew and has ideas of her own can usually manage to keep step with Dame Fashion in a reasonably satisfactory manner.

The little frock shown in the sketch is offered as an early spring model, but it is not sufficiently extreme to demand classification with any particular season. It may easily be made at home, using a pretty printed silk. A draped dress of this kind is becoming to nearly all figures. The tunic or overskirt is draped exactly alike back and front, the only flare being over each hip. The bodice material is drawn safely about the figure, made over a fitted lining, of course, and fastens at one side and on the shoulder. The left side is usually preferred for the closing, unless the woman for whom the gown is intended is left-handed.

Frock of Taffeta or Printed Foulard.

The sleeves are exceptionally smart. As will be seen, they fit the arms closely, are wrist length, and a row of buttons extends from shoulder to wrist.

SAPPHIRES IN FRONT RANK

Precious Stone Said to Be in Forefront Compared With Other Expensive Fashionable Gems.

That person, man, woman or Bolshevik, who wishes to be in it, to use the English equivalent for the French phrase, will wear sapphires. Such is the edict of fashion. One reason for this is that it has been comparatively easy to imitate the ruby, hitherto enshrined as the show gem, says the New York Times. Another probably is that the sapphire has been somewhat neglected, and it is prudent to get rid of accumulated stock.

As an incident of the edict demobilizing the ruby and calling the sapphire to the colors, we are told that diamonds and pearls are still the most expensive and most fashionable jewels. The latter part of this statement is tautology in its crudest form. As if anything could be the most expensive and avoid being the most fashionable. Still another interesting bit of this jewel gossip states that diamonds and pearls have increased 100 per cent in price since the war began, proving that they are worthy associates of King Coal. The information probably will serve to halt those who have been considering burning their surplus diamonds in the furnace to conserve the coal supply. And it also seems that the most aristocratic of gems feels the ebb and flow of the tide of labor, for it is said that the South African field has been confronted with a labor shortage. Such statements are truly alarming and probably will set many to hoarding diamonds, but news is news and must be given out.

Window Decollage. Window decollage is one of the new things in afternoon frocks. A bodice so constructed shows an oval opening in the front some three inches below the round neckline, and on each sleeve two or three inches above the short elbow sleeves.

IMPROVEMENT AT DRIVING PARK HAS BEGUN

One Thousand Feet Additional
Floor Space Being Added To Agricultural Building.

GROUPS BEING BEAUTIFIED

The Clearfield Park Association has a force of men at work improving the park grounds. Roads and drive ways are being enlarged, the grounds leveled and smoothed up and arrangements are being made to begin the erection of an addition to the agricultural building.

The last fair demonstrated that the present agricultural building or old "White House" is entirely too small to house the agricultural exhibits and with that end in view an addition to same has been decided upon.

The new addition will be 40x60 feet in size and will extend from the present building toward the gate.

The Association is arranging for a Fourth of July celebration and will have their many improvements completed before that time.

FEDERAL AGENTS TAKING TESTIMONY OF ENEMY ALIENS

B. B. McGinnies, Esq., and W. G. Hamilton of Pittsburgh, representatives of the U. S. Department of Justice were in Clearfield today taking testimony in the cases of three Clearfield county men of Austrian birth who are listed as enemy aliens and desire to be relieved of that designation and be allowed to become citizens of the United States.

The men in question are Stanley Vetsnoski, of Grampian; Andrew Vitko and John Postier of Madera.

The Federal regulations provide that in cases of this kind the applicant is required to produce two citizens as witnesses to testify as to testify as to their knowledge of the previous character of the applicant. A stenographer accompanies the government representatives for the purpose of taking down the testimony which is returned to the Department of Justice and if the investigation which follows proves satisfactory the desired citizenship is later allowed through the proper channels.

The examinations were held in the Grand Jury room this morning.

A WOMAN MASON

The only woman who ever became a Free Mason was the Hon. Mrs. Aldworth, whose admission to the order was not altogether voluntary on the part of its membership. It happened many years ago at Doneraile, a beautiful country seat in Ireland, where a meeting of the Free Masons was to take place. Betty St. Leger, afterwards the Hon. Mrs. Aldworth, being carried away by feminine curiosity concerning the proceedings, hid herself in an adjoining room and through a hole in the wall saw and heard the first two degrees in Masonry worked. To safeguard the secrets of the order, the Masons initiated Mistress Betty into the degrees she had seen and heard, and for many years she was a respected, active member.

DOCTOR ADVISED CHANGE OF CLIMATE

Run Down and Lame
Sayed Home and Gained
22 Pounds.

"In November, 1911, I had a severe cold and a gripe, which left me with a bad cough. My lungs and shoulder blades hurt so I couldn't sleep and I finally had to give up my job as street car motorman. My physician told me to change climate. In April, 1912, I began taking Milks Emulsion. On the second bottle I could see a change. My appetite was better and I commenced to gain strength and weight. Now (August 23, 1912) I have used 34 bottles, have increased 22 pounds in weight, and believe I am permanently cured."—W. F. Bourland, Route 5, Wolf City, Tenn.

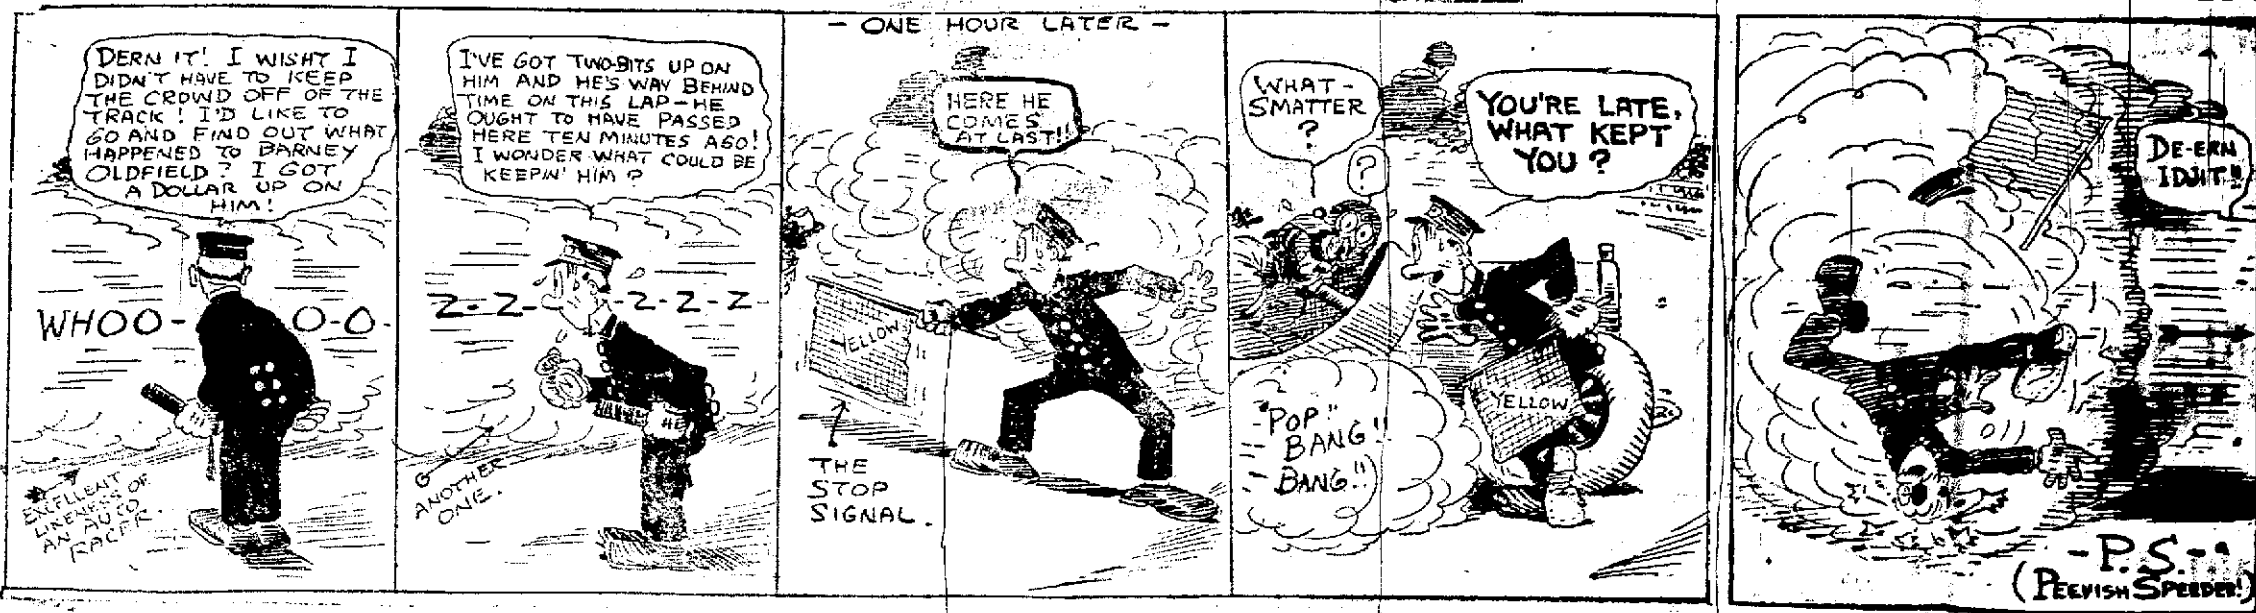

Mr. Bourland was fortunate in commencing to use Milks Emulsion while his case was in an incipient form. Even in many advanced cases, Milks Emulsion has brought wonders. It costs nothing to try—it is guaranteed.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and purges. It promotes appetite and quickly restores the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to run-down, nervous people, and it has produced amazing results in many cases of tuberculosis of the lungs. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. A truly wonderful medicine for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles honestly with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.50 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold and guaranteed by Stewart's Drug Co.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS CURWENSVILLE

Dorsey Black who has been on duty in France arrived home from Camp Dix on Thursday. He received a hearty welcome from family and friends.

Thursday evening Mrs. A. Z. Wolf was sitting in a porch swing at the residence of Dr. Jenkins. The fastenings gave away above, the swing in falling detached a piece from the top which in falling struck Mrs. Wolf on the head cutting a severe gash.

The funeral of Mrs. Fred Marshall, whose death was mentioned in this letter a few days ago, was held from her late home yesterday. Interment in Oak Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Wm. Twigg, Sr., of Blooming-ton avenue, who has been ill for some time is not improving very rapidly, and in her present condition small hopes are entertained for her recovery.

Last evening a reception was tendered Rev. Biddle and family by the lady members of his congregation in M. E. church. A large crowd was present and gave the pastor and his family a royal welcome to the town. A pleasing feature of the occasion was the inviting of the other ministers and their families that they might become acquainted with the new man and church people generally.

The tramp has become such a nuisance to residents residing on the side streets that it behooves the borough authorities to adopt some measure that will put a stop to their solicitation for food. Some become so bold, when they discover that no men are about, to threaten the women bodily harm if food is not given to them. It is time for the authorities to act, and in such a manner that the hobo will not linger in our midst any longer than will require him to get a train out, or escorted to the borough line and told to hit the road for the next stopping place.

Chas Patton came up from his Chester county farm and spent several days among old friends.

Joseph Patton, who resides near Philadelphia was in town a few days this week.

A meeting was held Thursday evening and a new board of health organized by electing the following officers: Pres Dr. H. O. King; V. P. John H. Myers; Sec. L. R. Wingert. The full board is now composed of Dr. King, Dr. Blair, Harry Leathers, J. H. Myers and L. R. Wingert. Another meeting has been called for next Tuesday evening in public building.

A Friends meeting is advertised to take place in the old stone church (now used as musical institute) on Thursday evening, April 17, at which time Edward Janney and his wife will be here to conduct the services. It is some time since a real "Quaker" meeting has been held in this place.

Brother Bixler editorially speaking strikes the right keynote when he says: "Boys who set fire to the brush on the mountain side should be arrested and their parents be made to pay all damages to growing timber resulting from the fires. The fire started on the hill south of town Sunday was undoubtedly started by boys, as two lads were seen going in that direction a short time before the fire was noticed." The above sentiment meets the approval of all Curwensville citizens.

Last Thursday Miss Leah Bloom, of Ferncliff was united in marriage to Russell E. Underwood of Clearfield, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride, Rev. B. H. Conley, of the Presbyterian church performing the ceremony.

WANTED

A home woman who has some time outside of home duties who would like to turn such time into money.

The work is just splendid, and such as to attract only the gentlest woman of ability and influence in her community. And it is such that she gets returns tomorrow, next day and next year, from what she does today and what she did yesterday. We have thousands of home women, and some in communities near you here, who are making from $25 to $50.00 and $100.00 per month during spare time. Exclusive territory given.

Some good people in the past have felt (justly or otherwise) that it was not quite genteel to do things outside of the home. But this great war has knocked all such foolishness out of our heads. We now know better, and know that it is quite the proper thing to do something.

If you have some spare energy that you would like to capitalize, and thus have some Liberty Bonds of your own, it will pay you to answer this at once, addressing F. A. W. care Progress.

ENTERTAINED ON BIRTHDAY

Fred G. Betts crossed the meridian of life at milestone No. 50 yesterday and in order to fittingly celebrate his half century of existence in this community invited the officers and his fellow directors of the County National Bank to his palatial home on South Second street where he entertained them in a manner befitting the importance of the occasion. A delightful evening for all concerned was the result.

HOW RHEUMATISM BEGINS

The excruciating agonies of rheumatism are usually the result of failure of
the kidneys to expel poisons from the system. If the irritation of these uric acid crystals is allowed to continue, in-ferable bladder or kidney disease may result. Attend to it at once. Don't revert to temporary relief. The sick kidneys must be restored to health by
the use of some sterling remedy which
will prevent a return of the disease.
Get some GOLD MEDAL HAZELDEN
OR Capsules immediately. They have brought back the joys of life to countless thousands of sufferers from rheumatism, lame back, lumbago, sciatica,
gout, stone, gravel and other affections
of the kidneys, liver, stomach, bladder
and other organs.
Don't neglect the poisons at once,
they get the kidneys and urinary tract
and the soothing healing oils and herbs
will soothe the inflamed tissues and will remove the poisons.
Don't believe any imitations. Ask for GOLD MEDAL and be sure the name
GOLD MEDAL is on the box. Three boxes at all good druggists.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By REV. P. E. FITZWATER, D. D.,
Teacher of English Bible in the Moody
Bible Institute of Chicago)
(Copyright, 1919, by Western Newspaper Union)

LESSON FOR APRIL 13

CHRIST OUR SAVIOR.

LESSON TEXTS—John 1:35-51; Matthew 28:18, 19; Romans 8:31, 32.
GOLDEN TEXT—God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten
Son, that whosoever believeth on him
should not perish, but have everlasting
life.—John 3:16.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus our friend and savior.
JUNIOR TOPIC—What Jesus does for
us.
INTERMEDIATE TOPIC—Our Lord
and savior.

1. Who Jesus is (John 1:35-51).
It is absolutely indispensable that every pupil regardless of age should know clearly who Jesus is and what he came into the world for. It should be the ardent desire of every teacher
to make so clear the person and work
of Christ that the pupils may accept
him as their Saviour. Nothing short
of his Delty and vicarious atonement
will avail for salvation. What he is set forth to be is through personal testimony. For the most part that which he was found to be is through personal investigation.

1. The Lamb of God (v. 36). John
testified that he is the Lamb of God—the world's sin bearer. The word used
and the idea conveyed carry us back to Isaiah 53 and forward to Jesus on
the cross, bearing our sins in his own body. Christ had been definitely pointed out to John by the Holy Spirit (v.
33, 34).

2. The Messiah (v. 41). At the invitation of Jesus, the disciples went and abode with him for a day. As a result of that day with Jesus they testified that he is the Messiah. He is that one whom God had anointed to be the Saviour of men.

3. The Son of God (v. 49). Nathanael was interested through the testimony of a friend. Philip told him that he had found Jesus of Nazareth, of whom Moses had written. He knew that Nazareth was not the birthplace
of the Messiah, therefore he inquired:
"Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" At the invitation of Philip he made a personal investigation. As a result he testified that Jesus was the Son of God, the King of Israel.

4. The Son of Man (v. 51). This is Christ's own testimony. It shows that he is the Messiah who, according to Daniel's prediction (Dan. 7:13), would appear in divine glory and establish a universal and eternal kingdom. In this testimony of Jesus is foreshadowed the union of man and God, and
through him the establishment of a medium of communication between earth and heaven. This is the reality of Jacob's vision at Bethel (Gen. 28: 12).

11. His Mission in the World (Matt.
20:27, 28; John 3:16).

He came to give his life a ransom
for many. The world was lost in sin
—about to perish. Christ voluntarily gave his life—died instead of the sinner.

12. The world is dying like the Israeites, because bitten by the serpent
of sin.

2. Christ, like the brazen serpent, has been lifted up upon the cross as
the remedy for sin (John 3:14, 15).

3. As the Israelites must look up to the uplifted serpent, so those who would be saved must believe on Jesus Christ (John 3:16). While looking
by faith to the crucified Christ saves
from the death-sting of the serpent, a neglect or refusal to believe on him
means to perish.

4. This provision was made by God.
It emanated from his love (John 3:
16). "For God so loved the world that he gave his only begotten Son."

III. What He Gives (Rom. 8:31, 32).
God gave his Son to save a dying
world. Those who accept his Son have God on their side. He that spared his Son will freely give all things to those who receive him. He even makes all things work together for good to them
who love him (Rom. 8:28).

Obedience Required.

The Bible rings with one long demand for obedience. The key word of the book of Deuteronomy is "Observe and do." The burden of our Lord's farewell discourse is, "If ye love me, keep my commandments." We must not question or reply or excuse ourselves. We must not pick and choose our way. We must not think that obedience in one direction
will compensate for disobedience in some other particular. God gives one command at a time; if we obey this
he will flood our soul with blessing,
and lead us forward into new paths
and pastures. But if we refuse we shall remain stagnant and waterlogged, make no progress in Christian experience, and lack both power and
joy.—F. B. Meyer.

God's Love.

Those who love God are encom-
passed with gladness on every side,
because in every passing moment they
see and feel a Father's love, and
nothing of this world can take it away or lessen it.—Leah.

Every Man.

Depend upon this truth, that every man is the worse looked upon, and the less trusted, for being thought to have no religion; in spite of all the pompous and specious epithets he may assume.—Chastellard.

Jesse Johnson, of Luthersburg,

day.

ODD FELLOWS WILL SHOW MOVIES OF MEADVILLE HOME

Clearfield people should not forget
the Odd Fellows benefit to be given at the New Driggs theatre Monday evening, April 14th.

An exceptionally fine picture program has been prepared for the occasion. The first two reels will be devoted to a showing of the I. O. O.
F. Orphans home, located at Meadville. The Odd Fellows maintain one of the most successful Orphan's Homes in the State. It is devoted exclusively to taking care of the orphan children of members of the order and this benefit is given to raise funds for the maintenance of this splendid institution.

All members and friends of the order and others interested in the welfare of the helpless orphan anywhere should patronize this benefit performance.

The first two reels will depict life
at the orphan school, showing building, grounds, school room and workshop, with the children at work and play. It will be well worth seeing.

In addition thereto five reels of
regular pictures also will be shown:
Admission 30c and war tax.

COUDN'T STAND THE DIET
Fred Halford, the well known machinist, large and small game hunter,
fisherman and raconteur, is mourning
the loss of a very valuable English
setter pup, which recently died for him despite the best efforts of Veterinarian Winner.

Halford's sorrow is double distilled
because of a dash of sentiment connected with the pup. He came of a long line of famous ancestry, some of his forebears having been raised by Fred's great uncle, Master of the ennel and Hounds for "er Royal highness" Queen Vic, and had their origin
on the Staffordshire farm of "Diddy's"
English ancestry. The veterinary said
the eating of Irish potatoes killed the dog.

Store Editorial

The Good-Will of Its Customers Is The Greatest Asset Any Store Can Have

Imagine how ineffective a store's advertising
would be if its customers did not have ABSOLUTE confidence in it; imagine how difficult it would be
to build up a successful, paying business if customers did not know that the store at which they were buying was endeavoring to give its best service as well as provide the best possible values.

We appreciate the fact that only in this way—
through GOOD WILL—has our store built its success—and thank our friends accordingly.

The Willingness of this Store to Please Every customer has brought for us our greatest asset—
GOOD WILL.

And the value of this Good-Will among our customers is demonstrated daily by the great number of new customers recommended by the friends
of this store.

HOPE FOR EASTER PEACE IS FADING NOW

MAY DAY PEACE INSTEAD OF EASTER IS NEW HOPEIT IS DECLARED THAT BIG PROBLEMS ARE ALL SETTLED BUT MASS OF DETAIL
IS YET TO BE ARRANGED

LEAGUE COVENANT PROGRESSING

By FRED S. FERGUSON

PARIS April 12—Belief in an Easter peace today has given way to hopes of a May day peace. While the most optimistic admitted the last hope of peace by April 20 apparently had vanished there was a general feeling that the treaty would be ready for presentation to the Germans by May 1 at least.

Persons close to the "big four" intimated that an agreement had virtually been reached now on all of the important questions. The military, naval and aerial terms of the treaty have been completed for weeks.

The revised League of Nations covenant is ready for submission to the Plenary Council.

BURLERSON'S REASONS

(By United Press)

WASHINGTON, April 12—The recent 20 per cent. increase in telegraph rates was necessitated by the same reason that various other industries increased the price of production and service as much as 100 per cent. Postmaster General Burleson announced today. In a signed statement setting forth his reasons for boosting the telephone and telegraph rates, he declared the time has now come when it is no longer possible to render telegraph service to industries at pre-war prices.

BETTER NEWS FROM RUSSIA

LONDON, April 12—The crisis in northern Russia has passed according to an Archangel dispatch to the Post today dated Thursday. It was stated that the Bolshevik army on the Archangel front now numbers 30,000.

RAINBOW DIVISION HURRYING HOME

BREST, April 12—All of the facilities of Camp Pontanezen were being devoted today to getting the Rainbow division started home on record time. A review will be given Secretary Baker, General Pershing, and General Petain at the camp Monday. The Rainbow unit will be given the place of honor in the review.

ITALY NOT ENTIRELY SATISFIED

(By United Press)

ROME, April 12—The Italian press continued today to take a firm attitude regarding Italy's claims. The gist of the newspaper's arguments was that the Italian cabinet could not sign a peace that would not entitle them to Trieste and Dalmatia.

DETROIT SOLDIERS
IN RUSS MUTINY

Py Raymond Clapper
(United Press Staff Correspondent)
WASHINGTON, April 12—Bolshevik propaganda is officially held responsible for the mutiny of an American infantry company in northern Russia.

Chief of Staff March announced today that Company I of the 339 Inf. comprised the offending troops and said that the question put by the men to their officers was the same as the Bolsheviks in propaganda advised them to ask. Company I is composed almost entirely of Detroit men.

Railroad communications have been completed to the most southern post held by the Allies in Northern Russia, March declared. This was accomplished by completion of the Onda ridge which enables supplies to be moved uninterrupted from Murmansk to the interior and assures abundance of food supplies and ammunition for the Allied forces, March said.

I saw it in The Progress.

CLEARFIELD

Miss Ollie Hummel, of Big Run, formerly employed as a clerk in Leitzinger's store and with a host of friends in Clearfield, died at Akron, Ohio, on Thursday evening. Her funeral will occur at her late home in Big Run tomorrow afternoon.

FORMER RESIDENT DIES AT
CLEVELAND

Burnley Shaw, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. B. Shaw, formerly well known residents of this community, died at his home in Cleveland, Ohio, on Thursday, October 3d, 1918, after an illness of but four days, aged about 42 years. He leaves a widow and one child.

GERMAN HELMETS AS LOAN PRIZES

These Full Dress Headpieces Were Intended For the Adornment of the Hun Army That Captured Paris, But They Got There by Freight.

Eighty-five thousand German helmets, captured by Allied troops in Coblenz, are to be awarded as prizes by Federal district committees in the Victory Liberty Loan Campaign.

In the picture shown above, taken on the Treasury steps in Washington, may be seen a number of the helmets just unpacked from the cases in which they arrived from Germany. Frank R. Wilson, director of Loan publicity, created a panic in the helmet market by buying the entire 85,000 allotment from the War Department for $1. It cost the German government more than that amount to manufacture each one of the helmets.

These helmets were a special supply held in reserve for a triumphal entry into Paris. They were to be worn by the German army.

RESPECTED BIGLER
RESIDENT DIES AS
RESULT OF INJURY

Alex McBlain, a well known Bigler citizen, died at the Clearfield hospital about 8:30 p. m. from loss of blood and shock following an accident which befell him in the clay mines of the Williams Grove Brick Works at Bigler yesterday afternoon.

Mr. McBlain, who was an experienced miner, was at work in the mine shortly after dinner yesterday when caught by a fall of clay. In falling a lump of clay struck him on the head and knocked him down, cutting a severe gash in his scalp but failing to render him unconscious. One leg was caught under the clay and fractured both above and below the knee, while the knee cap was also dislocated.

When pinioned by the clay Mr. McBlain called to Charley Merritt who was working in an adjoining room and heedless of danger from a further fall Mr. Merritt hastened to the injured man and hastily rolling the rocks off him picked him up in his arms and carried him outside and called for assistance.

Willing hands soon made Mr. McBlain as comfortable as possible and then summoned Dr. Waterworth and the ambulance from the Clearfield hospital. When Dr. Waterworth arrived he administered first aid and the patient who expressed himself as being alright, was placed in the ambulance and brought at once to the hospital.

The fractures were compound and the blood vessels surrounding them severely crushed and torn and the patient became so weakened from shock and loss of blood that blood transfusion was about to be resorted to in the hope of saving his life, but before this could be done he suffered a sinking spell and passed away.

Alex McBlain was an upright, industrious, good citizen and his untimely end is a severe blow to his loved ones and large circle of friends.

He leaves a widow and four children. James McBlain, of Fourth street, is a brother of the deceased.

The presence of mind, strong lungs and calliope voice of Joe Foreman, Jr. of Osceola, a freight conductor on the Pennsylvania, averted a tragedy at the Osceola station of the Pennsylvania about 2 o'clock yesterday afternoon. Foreman's train was shifting cars at the siding to the Ghem mine on the mountain above Osceola station yesterday. A loaded steel car was standing on the main track to which the caboose was attached. The crew was busily engaged with the engine getting the other loads off of the siding while Conductor Foreman in the caboose was rapidly writing out his report. Several "loads" were shoved out to the main track and the engine failing to gauge the distance properly ran onto the main track with a little more than ordinary force. The automatic coupler failed to work with the result that the lone car and caboose started back down the mountain.

The conductor was prompt to discover the dilemma he was in and grabbing a brakstick he beat it out to the loaded coal car and attempted to step the cars. The brakes were unable to overcome the momentum on the steep grade and the nervous trainman saw he was in for the ride of his life. It is two miles from the Ghem mine to Osceola and as the road simply falls down the mountain in this distance some idea can be gotten of the speed of the runaway.

The conductor knew the afternoon passenger train to Tyrone was due about the time he was having his ride for life and instead of seeking safety by jumping he got out on the front platform of the wildly rocking cabin car and bellowed the alarm at the crossings. When the curve above the Osceola depot was reached the now terrified conductor saw the passenger train on the track discharging passengers with a crowd of at least one hundred people passing to and fro over the track on which his runaway train was proceeding at lightning speed. His vociferous warning was heard in time and the frightened people scattered every which way as the cars flew by like a flash. Two baggage trucks loaded with baggage and express were in the path of the runaway and the trucks were hurled several hundred feet while their contents littered the landscape all about the station and down the track toward the yard.

Conductor Foreman succeeded in stopping his wild charges on the flat

AMERICAN IMMORTALS

HAROLD I. JOHNSTON,
Private, First Class, Co. A, 356th
Infantry.

Private Johnston was awarded the Distinguished Service Cross for conspicuous gallantry, near Penfil, France, November 9, 1918.

When information was desired as to the enemy's position on the opposite side of the river Meuse, Private Johnston, with another soldier, volunteered without hesitation, and swam the river to reconnoiter the exact location of the enemy. He succeeded in reaching the opposite bank, despite the evident determination of the enemy to prevent a crossing. Having obtained the information, he again entered the water for his return. This was accomplished after a severe struggle, which so exhausted him that he had to be assisted from the water, after which he rendered his report of the exploit. His mother, Mrs. Belle Renshaw, lives in Denver, Colo.

IN GREAT SHAPE
AT END OF YEAR

The Raftsmen's Journal has taken the trouble to analyze the figures of the county auditor's statement as published in the various county newspapers and from that analysis has brought to light some interesting data. The Journal declares that the county commissioners and their County Home staff have succeeded in establishing a lower cost per capita for maintaining the poor house than during the previous year. If the county commissioners and their efficient steward have done this they have something on every other house keeper in the county and deserve all the credit in the world for it. Following is the article taken from Brother McQuown's newspaper.

The Commissioners' Annual Statement of receipts and expenditures for the year 1918 as compiled by the auditors make a remarkable showing of the manner in which the finances of the taxpayers were handled during the past year, and on account of there being such an unusual disturbance in all business circles, it appears that the county has not been disturbed as a result thereof.

General Fund

We notice that a balance remains in the county fund in the sum of $51,820.17 in the Poor fund $24,411.84 after all bills have been paid for the current year and out of the bond fund of $110,000.00 there appears a total credit of $106,532.42 cash in the treasurers hands.

Road and Bridge Bond Fund

The bond fund represents a loan of $110,000.00 which was taken out in 1917 to meet the expenses required in the construction of roads and bridges included in this the Leonard bridge at a cost of $62,378.22. This loan represents all expenses in connection with the 900 foot improvement; the bridge its approaches, cost of the land from which the embankments were removed and the cost of removing these embankments, so as to eliminate the danger from the approaches to the bridge on the railroad crossings. In addition to this appropriations were made toward the improvement of Riverview bridge, lower Clearfield bridge, Curwensville bridge, La Jose bridge, Westover bridge and other bridges, and the county's share in the construction of state road. A levy of one-half mill has been made to satisfy this bond, and at the present income derived from it, eight years will be sufficient to wipe out a large proportion of this, the county's only bonded indebtedness.

Poor Fund

With reference to the Poor District with the assistance of capable management at the County Home, the commissioners have been successful in establishing a lower cost of per capita maintenance at the County Home than in former years, notwithstanding the 100 per cent increase in the cost of food products, etc. The aggregate expenditure in the Poor fund was $69,271.62, of this amount the total almshouse expenditure was $24,035.89. Over $25,000 was expended for maintenance of insane and feeble minded persons chargeable to the Poor District, and the Children's Home cost the taxpayers $5,176.00. It might be well to note this item, as so many people are of the opinion that the Children's Home is maintained by outside charity which is not the case.

We believe that the above figures are sufficient to arouse the interest of the taxpayers in the statement that although all other departments of business were subject to increased demands by reason of the war, yet our county fathers have been able to conserve a larger balance in each of its departments than in previous years and at the same time have attended each and every call that has been made upon them.

at the lower end of the yard and remained where he was until his thoroughly frightened crew arrived with their engine and hauled him back up the hill.

It was a narrow escape for the people at the station and all were loud in their praise of the nifty conductor.

GOOD ROADS ASSOCIATION DISCUSSES
CURWENSVILLE AND PENFIELD ROADS

The local good roads meeting at the arbitration room last evening was very well attended by local road boosters and business men and a highly satisfactory session was the result.

A. E. Leitzinger, President of the County Association presided and County Vice President Peter Gearhart was also present.

The matter of securing releases from property owners living along the route was taken up and it was found that all had signed but three, and County Commissioner Spencer volunteered to take the matter up and in conjunction with Mr. Bennett of the Highway department, see that all difficulties of this nature was met and satisfactorily disposed of.

Mr. Spencer also stated that the real reason that bids for construction of this road had not already been asked for by the State Highway department was because of difficulty with the B. R. & P. railway company regarding the proposed underground crossing at Bailey's, the overhead bridges at Hogback and near C. & M. junction.

Mr. Spencer in company with Commissioner Dale and County Solicitor W. C. Miller visited Harrisburg the first of the week for the purpose of discovering the apparent delay in getting work underway on this road and Commissioner Sadler informed them that the reasons mentioned above were the sole cause of the delay and that as soon as these matters could be disposed of bids would be advertised for.

The Public Service Commission and representatives of the B. R. & P. had a session in Harrisburg yesterday to solve the problems concerning the crossing and the bridges and no doubt a policy was agreed upon.

The Highway Commissioner promised that bids for this road would be advertised for within the next thirty days.

President Leitzinger had read a letter and resolutions received from the Curwensville Association advocating speeding up this road work and following the reading Hon. Joseph E. Phillips offered the following resolution:

Whereas it is the sense of the members of the Clearfield County Good Roads association that the season is advancing and the need of improvement on routes 57 and 59 at the points between Blue Ball and Woodland; the proposed improvement between Curwensville and Clearfield also the part to be reconstructed from Sandy township line through Brady township near Jefferson line, should receive prompt and immediate attention.

And Whereas, the Curwensville branch of the Clearfield County Good Roads association have signified by resolution and notice that evidence of negligence on the part of persons having this work in charge is evident and have appealed to the various bodies having the matter in charge to start the improvement. Therefore be it

The resolution was seconded by C. C. Norris and unanimously adopted.

The matter of the improvement of the Penfield road was then taken up and discussed at length, J. D. Connolly, F. G. Harris, James Mitchell, Grant Butler, Peter Gearhart, Joseph E. Phillips and President Leitzinger taking part in the discussion, which proved the necessity for the improvement of the road, which is a direct route to Ridgway, Emporium and that section of the State.

E. J. Westcott, County Superintendent of Roads, was asked what assistance in repairing this road could be looked for from the Highway department and he stated that inasmuch as the road was not on a state route no State aid could be given, except that he would co-operate with the local committee in every way possible for him to do so in any effort to bring about a better condition on the road and would be willing to supply any tools they had available and not in use.

Mr. Phillips then moved that a committee of seven be appointed by the chair to meet with the Lawrence township supervisors and take up with them the matter of the improvement of the Penfield road through that township and solicit their assistance in this work; that this committee be authorized to solicit voluntary contributions to assist in the work and be further empowered to meet with the Pine and Huston township supervisors and good roads association and appoint a day or days to begin the improvement at as early a time as it is possible to do so and then carry out a satisfactory conclusion.

The motion was seconded by J. D. Connolly and unanimously adopted.

The chair then appointed the committee as follows: John M. Chaney, Wm. Thompson, Frank G. Harris, Grant Butler, Albert D. Bigler, A. Kline and J. E. Phillips.

The matter of the proposed change in Route 57 between Woodland and Blue Ball was then taken up for discussion and Mr. Connolly moved that this meeting go on record as favoring the change proposed by the State Highway department in Route 57 between Woodland and Blue Ball in order to eliminate the many dangerous grade crossings and grade on the present traveled road between these points. The motion was seconded by Mr. Norris and unanimously adopted.

County President Leitzinger announced that the regular meeting of the Clearfield County Good Roads association would be held in the Court House on Tuesday afternoon April 17th, under the provisions of the by-laws of the association and asked that all road boosters attend as matters of great importance to the roads of the county would come up at that meeting.

There being no further business the meeting adjourned.

DEBS TO SURRENDER HIMSELF AT
CLEVELAND TODAY FOR HIS CRIME

Terra Haute, Ind., April 12—Eugene V. Debs will go to Cleveland today and give himself up to Federal authorities to serve a ten year prison sentence for violating the Espionage act in a speech at Canton, Ohio. The United States Attorney telegraphed Debs early today that the United States marshal would not come to Terra Haute for him. Debs planned to leave Terra Haute shortly after noon.

In a final interview he said: "I can distinctly hear the echo of my case through 10,000 miles of space in the mutiny of American soldiers in Archangel. I am wondering how many people realize the importance of this seemingly unimportant instance.

Socialists of the Fifth Congressional district are planning a big demonstration here May 1, to protest against the imprisonment of Debs. They are of the opinion that executive clemency will be granted him.

Save The Pieces Is Cry Of The German People

By FRANK J. TAYLOR

(United Press Staff Correspondent)
Berlin, March 20, (By Mail)—German officials, their foreign office, have been brought up to expect wonders from their Government. In this relation the conception of the German has not changed. He gives support to the Government only when he is obliged to, yet he expects it to accomplish miracles in its dealings with outside powers. It is a remnant of the old "Deutschland über alles" days, a viewpoint drilled into Germans from the days of their youth. It cannot be changed in a month.

The foreign office, then, has to make the most of a bad situation, and with the hope rather than the belief that it can save something for the republic has made its claims on a status quo basis, which the foreign office feels Germany is entitled to through President Wilson's Fourteen Points, which are the byword in Germany. These points are Germany's only hope, is the feeling in the foreign office.

With these as the basis for claiming a status quo settlement, the foreign secretary, Count Brockdorff-Rantzau, in his reichstag speech, demanded the return of the German colonies, free access to the world's commerce, a plebiscite in Alsace-Lorraine, no indemnities to be paid by Germany, though he declared the republic ready to make good the damage done by its assault on civilians in Belgium and northern France, as the main demands of Germany, which should enter the League of Nations at once as an equal.

There were a number of other points which the foreign office is prepared to dispute, prisoner question, the blockade, the Polish boundary, but which are regarded more in the light of protests rather than fundamental, though the Polish boundary question worries Germans extremely. The series of protests both from the foreign office and the armistice commission are considered part of the game of wits as much as possible.

The 2 others and this policy on the part of the Germans, carried out through the foreign office, may be termed either "imperialistic" or simply "selfish." It depends upon the point of view you have. If you look at it from an Entente perspective and feel that the Germans expect to get everything they claim, which could in a trying and thankless position, hardly be more if they had won the

On the other hand, after talking to members of the foreign office, you find that even they do not expect to get what they are demanding nor do they anticipate results from their protests. They feel that they are doing the only thing possible to save something for their country. They do not feel they are imperialistic and feel that their claims are simply defensive. From this point of view it is selfish.

Every condition forced upon Germany is taken bitterly and the motives of the Entente are mistrusted to the extreme. An incident in the foreign office after the February armistice renewal will illustrate the feeling. A group of secretaries were expostulating against the harshness of the terms, and after arguing the various motives, asked an American present if he thought the terms were hard and what the Entente wanted to do with Germany.

"I suppose the Entente wants to make Germany modest," he replied. "Don't you think we are modest?" they asked in surprise.

"Frankly, no I don't," said the American. The answer caused great amazement among the Germans.

In this connection it is interesting to note that few Germans believe they were defeated militarily. Invariably you are corrected if you make a break by mentioning "the defeat of the German armies" and you are put right, in the following light: Germany quit because she accepted the Fourteen Points of President Wilson and because she was hungry and because there was a change in the spirit of the people, or rather the pacifists got power and threw out the militarists. But the armies were not defeated, say Germans.

Germans argue, therefore, that they should make peace on a basis of equality, and say their present defenseless position is due to the idealism with which they disbanded their armies, feeling the Entente would do the same. When you first hear this line of reasoning you are inclined to think it is a bluff. But the constant repetition by intelligent men and women finally convinces you that the German people believe they were undefeated in the field, and they think they are in their present predicament because the Entente was not faithful to the armistice term.

The public statement of Erzberger that the first armistice was signed on the frantic orders of Hindenburg, whose army had collapsed, or the public utterances of men who have dared to say Germany was defeated, has not changed public opinion. This prevailing idea makes clearer the demands of Germany.

To the credit of the foreign office, it should be said, that department is everything they claim, which could in a trying and thankless position, hardly be more if they had won the

WORKERS PRIMED FOR THE VICTORY LIBERTY LOAN

Possessing experience, efficiency and a better organization than ever, a veteran army of more than 40,000 Loan Workers is facing with confidence the big job of putting the Victory Liberty Loan "over the top" in Pennsylvania.

It has been one of the most encouraging features of the preliminary work this rallying of the "old guard" of previous campaigns to the call for the last big "drive". Every County in the Third Federal Reserve District has its veteran organization at "attention" awaiting the signal to go into action.

Not only are the veterans in line; many thousands of new volunteers are being enlisted for emergency service of one form or another. Requisitions at Victory Liberty Loan Headquarters for workers' credentials indicate that fully 100,000 persons in the Third District will be in service before the drive is ended. But the main reliance is, of course, placed on the efforts of the 40,000 veterans.

This big army will be directed in its work by veteran leaders. In only a very few counties has there been a change in the Chairmanship. These few changes are due to ill health or intervention of business affairs. The leaders, as well as the men in ranks, are "sticking it out". And this "standing to it" has created optimism which is making itself felt in the attitude of the public toward the Loan.

The State Campaign is in charge of the Advisory Committee for Pennsylvania, of which E. McLain Watters is Chairman, with Headquarters at Philadelphia. Just back from a tour of the Central and Southern Counties, Mr. Watters reports zeal and enthusiasm equal to, if not surpassing the spirit of previous drives. County Chairmen are directed in their work by group representatives. The District has been divided into seven groups of counties, and the representatives for each group is a member of the Advisory Committee. This arrangement, which is new in the present campaign, gives thorough control and places the Advisory Committee in close working contact with the County campaigns.

It is conceded that no handicap could equal the predicament faced by the Loan Organization during the Fourth Loan Campaign. Then, the influenza epidemic put the bar on every phase of organized effort. It nullified the team work that the splendid force of workers was prepared to put into the campaign.

If the Fourth Loan could be made a success, while death and sickness were invading almost every household, the Victory Loan simply can't lose! is the way the workers feel about it.

The publicity end of the Organization is particularly well developed in each County with Local Chairmen in charge and this also applies to the Speaker's Division.

isfy German public demands. The foreign office is convinced that open and direct dealing with the world is necessary, after the defeat of the blundering old regime, diplomacy, and at present the foreign office needs to be honest with the German people, rather than with foreign powers, to complete its self-cleansing

Women Who Can Sew Manage to Keep Step With Fashion.

Interesting Little Frock of Taffeta or Printed Foulard Offered as Early Spring Model.

Each season's styles have such a way of overlapping that the average woman just about completes her wardrobe when along comes information as to what is to be worn in the season immediately to come.

Fortunately during the past two or three seasons there have been very few radical style changes, and the woman who can sew and has ideas of her own can usually manage to keep step with Dame Fashion in a reasonably satisfactory manner.

The little frock shown in the sketch is offered as an early spring model, but it is not sufficiently extreme to demand classification with any particular season. It may easily be made at home, using a pretty printed silk. A draped dress of this kind is becoming to nearly all figures. The tunic or overskirt is draped exactly alike back and front, the only flare being over each hip. The bodice material is drawn safely about the figure, made over a fitted lining, of course, and fastens at one side and on the shoulder. The left side is usually preferred for the closing, unless the woman for whom the gown is intended is left-handed.

Frock of Taffeta or Printed Foulard.

The sleeves are exceptionally smart. As will be seen, they fit the arms closely, are wrist length, and a row of buttons extends from shoulder to wrist.

SAPPHIRES IN FRONT RANK

Precious Stone Said to Be in Forefront Compared With Other Expensive Fashionable Gems.

That person, man, woman or Bolshevik, who wishes to be in it, to use the English equivalent for the French phrase, will wear sapphires. Such is the edict of fashion. One reason for this is that it has been comparatively easy to imitate the ruby, hitherto enshrined as the show gem, says the New York Times. Another probably is that the sapphire has been somewhat neglected, and it is prudent to get rid of accumulated stock.

As an incident of the edict demobilizing the ruby and calling the sapphire to the colors, we are told that diamonds and pearls are still the most expensive and most fashionable jewels. The latter part of this statement is tautology in its crudest form. As if anything could be the most expensive and avoid being the most fashionable. Still another interesting bit of this jewel gossip states that diamonds and pearls have increased 100 per cent in price since the war began, proving that they are worthy associates of King Coal. The information probably will serve to halt those who have been considering burning their surplus diamonds in the furnace to conserve the coal supply. And it also seems that the most aristocratic of gems feels the ebb and flow of the tide of labor, for it is said that the South African field has been confronted with a labor shortage. Such statements are truly alarming and probably will set many to hoarding diamonds, but news is news and must be given out.

Window Decollage. Window decollage is one of the new things in afternoon frocks. A bodice so constructed shows an oval opening in the front some three inches below the round neckline, and on each sleeve two or three inches above the short elbow sleeves.

STROYERS CANNOT ESCAPE PUNISHMENT

A number of the hunting camps on the mountains have been broken into of late and both camp and contents badly damaged. The members of the different camps have hesitated about bringing prosecutions for fear of incurring the enmity of the outlaws, considering the depredations with the possibility of greater damage or destruction of property in the future.

To relieve this condition the Clearfield County Hunters association has decided to take up the matter of these depredations as an organization affair of duty and will proceed against any and all persons guilty of such crimes in the future.

Hereafter when your camp has been broken into and damaged notify the President or Secretary of the Hunters association and the matter of prosecution will be at once taken up. Two Karthaus township boys have returned from overseas service with the American Expeditionary forces. They are James H. and William L. Zimmerman, sons of Mr. and Mrs. William Zimmerman, of Karthaus.

The Zimmerman boys enlisted in October 1917. At Columbus Barracks James was placed in the 139th Aero Squadron and Wm. L. in the 14th Aero Squadron and were sent to Fort Worth, Texas, for training. They sailed for France in February 1918 and Wm. L. was wounded by a bomb from a hun airship shortly after landing. He was one of the first Clearfield county boys to receive a wound. After crossing the English Channel the brothers were separated and did not see one another again until after the armistice was signed.

They were again separated in February last and sailed for home over different routes but landed in New York only a couple of hours apart. James was mustered out of the service last month and is now at home while Wm. L. signed up for six weeks service in helping to put the Victory Liberty Loan over.

Leo Dugan was a Clearfield visitor last evening.

IMPROVEMENT AT DRIVING PARK HAS BEGUN

One Thousand Feet Additional
Floor Space Being Added To Agricultural Building.

GROUPS BEING BEAUTIFIED

The Clearfield Park Association has a force of men at work improving the park grounds. Roads and drive ways are being enlarged, the grounds leveled and smoothed up and arrangements are being made to begin the erection of an addition to the agricultural building.

The last fair demonstrated that the present agricultural building or old "White House" is entirely too small to house the agricultural exhibits and with that end in view an addition to same has been decided upon.

The new addition will be 40x60 feet in size and will extend from the present building toward the gate.

The Association is arranging for a Fourth of July celebration and will have their many improvements completed before that time.

FEDERAL AGENTS TAKING TESTIMONY OF ENEMY ALIENS

B. B. McGinnies, Esq., and W. G. Hamilton of Pittsburgh, representatives of the U. S. Department of Justice were in Clearfield today taking testimony in the cases of three Clearfield county men of Austrian birth who are listed as enemy aliens and desire to be relieved of that designation and be allowed to become citizens of the United States.

The men in question are Stanley Vetsnoski, of Grampian; Andrew Vitko and John Postier of Madera.

The Federal regulations provide that in cases of this kind the applicant is required to produce two citizens as witnesses to testify as to testify as to their knowledge of the previous character of the applicant. A stenographer accompanies the government representatives for the purpose of taking down the testimony which is returned to the Department of Justice and if the investigation which follows proves satisfactory the desired citizenship is later allowed through the proper channels.

The examinations were held in the Grand Jury room this morning.

A WOMAN MASON

The only woman who ever became a Free Mason was the Hon. Mrs. Aldworth, whose admission to the order was not altogether voluntary on the part of its membership. It happened many years ago at Doneraile, a beautiful country seat in Ireland, where a meeting of the Free Masons was to take place. Betty St. Leger, afterwards the Hon. Mrs. Aldworth, being carried away by feminine curiosity concerning the proceedings, hid herself in an adjoining room and through a hole in the wall saw and heard the first two degrees in Masonry worked. To safeguard the secrets of the order, the Masons initiated Mistress Betty into the degrees she had seen and heard, and for many years she was a respected, active member.

You Can Depend on the Man Who Advertises

Nine times out of ten you will find that the man who advertises is the man who most willingly returns your money if you are not satisfied.

He has too much at stake to risk losing your trade or your confidence. You can depend on him.

He is not in business for today or tomorrow only—but for next year and ten years from next year. He knows the value of good will.

You get better merchandise at a fairer price than he could ever hope to sell it if he did not have the larger volume of business that comes from legitimate advertising and goods that bear out the promise of the printed word.

Don't miss the advertisements. This very day they call your attention to values that tomorrow you will be sorry you overlooked.

DOCTOR ADVISED CHANGE OF CLIMATE

Run Down and Lame
Sayed Home and Gained
22 Pounds.

"In November, 1911, I had a severe cold and a gripe, which left me with a bad cough. My lungs and shoulder blades hurt so I couldn't sleep and I finally had to give up my job as street car motorman. My physician told me to change climate. In April, 1912, I began taking Milks Emulsion. On the second bottle I could see a change. My appetite was better and I commenced to gain strength and weight. Now I am 23, 1912, I have used 34 bottles, have increased 22 pounds in weight, and believe I am permanently cured."—W. F. Bourland, Route 5, Wolf City, Tenn.

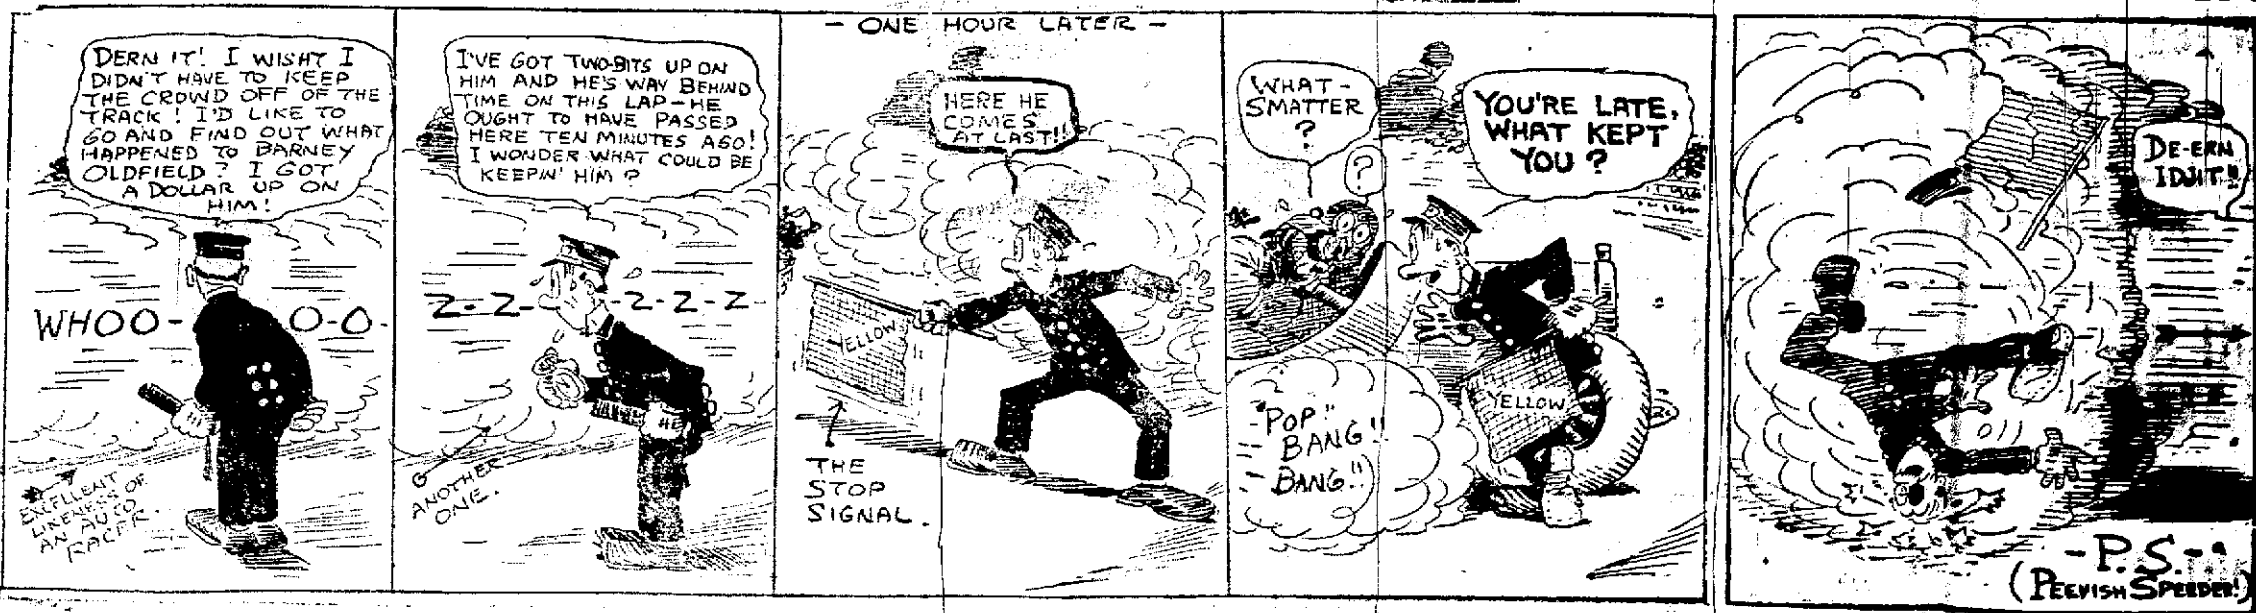

Mr. Bourland was fortunate in commencing to use Milks Emulsion while his case was in an incipient form. Even in many advanced cases, Milks Emulsion has brought wonders. It costs nothing to try—it is guaranteed.

Milks Emulsion is a pleasant, nutritive food and a corrective medicine. It restores healthy, natural bowel action, doing away with all need of pills and purges. It promotes appetite and quickly restores the digestive organs in shape to assimilate food. As a builder of flesh and strength, Milks Emulsion is strongly recommended to run-down, nervous people, and it has produced amazing results in many cases of tuberculosis of the lungs. Chronic stomach trouble and constipation are promptly relieved—usually in one day.

This is the only solid emulsion made, and so palatable that it is eaten with a spoon like ice cream. A truly wonderful medicine for weak, sickly children.

No matter how severe your case, you are urged to try Milks Emulsion under this guarantee—Take six bottles honestly, with you, use it according to directions and if not satisfied with the results, your money will be promptly refunded. Price 60c and $1.50 per bottle. The Milks Emulsion Co., Terre Haute, Ind. Sold and guaranteed by Stewart's Drug Co.

NEWS OF OUR NEIGHBORS

CURWENSVILLE

Dorsey Black who has been on duty in France arrived home from Camp Dix on Thursday. He received a hearty welcome from family and friends.

Thursday evening Mrs. A. Z. Wolf was sitting in a porch swing at the residence of Dr. Jenkins. The fastenings gave away above, the swing in falling detached a piece from the top which in falling struck Mrs. Wolf on the head cutting a severe gash.

The funeral of Mrs. Fred Marshall, whose death was mentioned in this letter a few days ago, was held from her late home yesterday. Interment in Oak Hill cemetery.

Mrs. Wm. Twigg, Sr., of Blooming-ton avenue, who has been ill for some time is not improving very rapidly, and in her present condition small hopes are entertained for her recovery.

Last evening a reception was tendered Rev. Biddle and family by the lady members of his congregation in M. E. church. A large crowd was present and gave the pastor and his family a royal welcome to the town. A pleasing feature of the occasion was the inviting of the other ministers and their families that they might become acquainted with the new man and church people generally.

The tramp has become such a nuisance to residents residing on the side streets that it behooves the borough authorities to adopt some measure that will put a stop to their solicitation for food. Some become so bold, when they discover that no men are about, to threaten the women bodily harm if food is not given to them. It is time for the authorities to act, and in such a manner that the hobo will not linger in our midst any longer than will require him to get a train out, or escorted to the borough line and told to hit the road for the next stopping place.

Chas Patton came up from his Chester county farm and spent several days among old friends.

Joseph Patton, who resides near Philadelphia was in town a few days this week.

A meeting was held Thursday evening and a new board of health organized by electing the following officers: Pres Dr. H. O. King; V. P. John H. Myers; Sec. L. R. Wingert. The full board is now composed of Dr. King, Dr. Blair, Harry Leathers, J. H. Myers and L. R. Wingert. Another meeting has been called for next Tuesday evening in public building.

A Friends meeting is advertised to take place in the old stone church (now used as musical institute) on Thursday evening, April 17, at which time Edward Janney and his wife will be here to conduct the services. It is some time since a real "Quaker" meeting has been held in this place.

Brother Bixler editorially speaking strikes the right keynote when he says: "Boys who set fire to the brush on the mountain side should be arrested and their parents be made to pay all damages to growing timber resulting from the fires. The fire started on the hill south of town Sunday was undoubtedly started by boys, as two lads were seen going in that direction a short time before the fire was noticed." The above sentiment meets the approval of all Curwensville citizens.

Last Thursday Miss Leah Bloom, of Ferncliff was united in marriage to Russell E. Underwood of Clearfield, the ceremony being performed at the home of the bride, Rev. B. H. Conley, of the Presbyterian church performing the ceremony.

WANTED

A home woman who has some time outside of home duties who would like to turn such time into money.

The work is just splendid, and such as to attract only the gentlest woman of ability and influence in her community. And it is such that she gets returns tomorrow, next day and next year, from what she does today and what she did yesterday. We have thousands of home women, and some in communities near you here, who are making from $25 to $50.00 and $100.00 per month during spare time. Exclusive territory given.

Some good people in the past have felt (justly or otherwise) that it was not quite genteel to do things outside of the home. But this great war has knocked all such foolishness out of our heads. We now know better, and know that it is quite the proper thing to do something. If you have some snap and energy that you would like to capitalize, and thus have some Liberty Bonds of your own, it will pay you to answer this at once, addressing F. A. W. care Progress.

ENTERTAINED ON BIRTHDAY. Fred G. Betts crossed the meridian of life at milestone No. 50 yesterday and in order to fittingly celebrate his half century of existence in this community invited the officers and his fellow directors of the County National Bank to his palatial home on South Second street where he entertained them in a manner befitting the importance of the occasion. A delightful evening for all concerned was the result.

HOW RHEUMATISM BEGINS

The excruciating agonies of rheumatism are usually the result of failure of
the kidneys to expel poisons from the system. If the irritation of these uric
acid crystals is allowed to continue, in-ferable bladder or kidney disease may result. Attend to it at once. Don't rely on temporary relief. The sick kidneys must be restored to health by
the use of some sterling remedy which
will prevent a return of the disease.
Get some GOLD MEDAL HAZELDEN
OF CAPSULES immediately. They have brought back the joys of life to countless thousands of sufferers from rheumatism, lame back, lumbago, sciatica,
gout, stone, gravel and other affections
of the kidneys, liver, stomach, bladder
and other organs.
Don't wait until the poisons are once more out of the kidneys and urinary tract
and the soothing healing oils and herbs
will soothe the inflamed tissues and bring about permanent healing.

SUNDAY SCHOOL LESSON

(By REV. P. E. FITZWATER, D. D.,
Teacher of English Bible in the Moody
Bible Institute of Chicago)
(Copyright, 1919, by Western Newspaper Union)

LESSON FOR APRIL 13

CHRIST OUR SAVIOR.

LESSON TEXTS—John 1:35-51; Matthew
28:18-20; John 3:16; Romans 8:31, 32.
GOLDEN TEXT—God so loved the
world, that he gave his only begotten
Son, that whosoever believeth on him
should not perish, but have everlasting
life.—John 3:16.

PRIMARY TOPIC—Jesus our friend and
savior.
JUNIOR TOPIC—What Jesus does for
us.
INTERMEDIATE TOPIC—Our Lord
and savior.

1. Who Jesus is (John 1:35-51).
It is absolutely indispensable that
every pupil regardless of age should
know clearly who Jesus is and what
he came into the world for. It should be the ardent desire of every teacher
to make so clear the person and work
of Christ that the pupils may accept
him as their Saviour. Nothing short
of his Delty and vicarious atonement
will avail for salvation. What he is set forth to be is through personal testimony. For the most part that
which he was found to be is through
personal investigation.

1. The Lamb of God (v. 36). John
testified that he is the Lamb of God—the world's sin bearer. The word used
and the idea conveyed carry us back
to Isaiah 53 and forward to Jesus on
the cross, bearing our sins in his own
body. Christ had been definitely pointed out to John by the Holy Spirit (vv.
33, 34).

2. The Messiah (v. 41). At the invitation of Jesus, the disciples went and abode with him for a day. As a result of that day with Jesus they testified
that he is the Messiah. He is that one whom God had anointed to be the Saviour of men.

3. The Son of God (v. 49). Nathanael was interested through the testimony of a friend. Philip told him that he had found Jesus of Nazareth, of whom Moses had written. He knew
that Nazareth was not the birthplace
of the Messiah, therefore he inquired:
"Can any good thing come out of Nazareth?" At the invitation of Philip he made a personal investigation. As a result he testified that Jesus was the Son of God, the King of Israel.

4. The Son of Man (v. 51). This is Christ's own testimony. It shows that he is the Messiah who, according to Daniel's prediction (Dan. 7:13), would appear in divine glory and establish a universal and eternal kingdom. In this testimony of Jesus is foreshadowed the union of man and God, and
through him the establishment of a medium of communication between
earth and heaven. This is the reality
of Jacob's vision at Bethel (Gen. 28: 12).

11. His Mission in the World (Matt.
20:27, 28; John 3:16).

He came to give his life a ransom
for many. The world was lost in sin
—about to perish. Christ voluntarily
gave his life—died instead of the sinner.

12. The world is dying like the Israeites, because bitten by the serpent
of sin.

2. Christ, like the brazen serpent,
has been lifted up upon the cross as
the remedy for sin (John 3:14, 15).

3. As the Israelites must look up to the uplifted serpent, so those who would be saved must believe on Jesus Christ (John 3:16). While looking
by faith to the crucified Christ saves
from the death-sting of the serpent, a
neglect or refusal to believe on him
means to perish.

4. This provision was made by God.
It emanated from his love (John 3:
16). "For God so loved the world that
he gave his only begotten Son."

III. What He Gives (Rom. 8:31, 32).
God gave his Son to save a dying
world. Those who accept his Son have God on their side. He that spared his Son will freely give all things to those
who receive him. He even makes all
things work together for good to them
who love him (Rom. 8:28).

Obedience Required.

The Bible rings with one long demand for obedience. The key word
of the book of Deuteronomy is "Observe and do." The burden of our Lord's farewell discourse is, "If ye
love me, keep my commandments." We must not question or reply or excuse ourselves. We must not pick
and choose our way. We must not
think that obedience in one direction
will compensate for disobedience in some other particular. God gives one
command at a time; if we obey this
he will flood our soul with blessing,
and lead us forward into new paths
and pastures. But if we refuse we shall remain stagnant and waterlogged, make no progress in Christian
experience, and lack both power and
joy.—F. B. Meyer.

God's Love.

Those who love God are encom-
passed with gladness on every side,
because in every passing moment they
see and feel a Father's love, and
nothing of this world can take it
away or lessen it.—Leah.

Every Man.

Depend upon this truth, that every
man is the worse looked upon, and the
less trusted, for being thought to have
no religion; in spite of all the pomp-
ous and specious epithets he may assume.—Chastellard.

ODD FELLOWS WILL SHOW MOVIES OF MEADVILLE HOME

Clearfield people should not forget
the Odd Fellows benefit to be given at the New Driggs theatre Monday evening, April 14th.

An exceptionally fine picture program has been prepared for the occasion. The first two reels will be devoted to a showing of the I. O. O.
F. Orphans home, located at Mead-
ville. The Odd Fellows maintain one
of the most successful Orphan's Homes in the State. It is devoted exclusively to taking care of the orphan children of members of the order and this benefit is given to raise funds for the maintenance of this
splendid institution.

All members and friends of the order and others interested in the welfare of the helpless orphan anywhere
should patronize this benefit performance.

The first two reels will depict life
at the orphan school, showing building, grounds, school room and workshop, with the children at work and
play. It will be well worth seeing.
In addition thereto five reels of
regular pictures also will be shown:
Admission 30c and war tax.

COUDN'T STAND THE DIET

Fred Halford, the well known machinist, large and small game hunter,
fisherman and raconteur, is mourning
the loss of a very valuable English
setter pup, which recently died for
him despite the best efforts of Veterinarian Winner.

Halford's sorrow is double distilled
because of a dash of sentiment connected with the pup. He came of a long line of famous ancestry, some of
his forebears having been raised by Fred's great uncle, Master of the
ennel and Hounds for "er Royal highness" Queen Vic, and had their origin
on the Staffordshire farm of "Diddy's"
English ancestry. The veterinary said
the eating of Irish potatoes killed the
dog.

Store Editorial

The Good-Will of Its Customers Is The Greatest Asset Any Store Can Have

Imagine how ineffective a store's advertising
would be if its customers did not have ABSOLUTE
confidence in it; imagine how difficult it would be
to build up a successful, paying business if customers did not know that the store at which they were buying was endeavoring to give its best service as well as provide the best possible values.

We appreciate the fact that only in this way—
through GOOD WILL—has our store built its success—and thank our friends accordingly.

The Willingness of this Store to Please Every
customer has brought for us our greatest asset—
GOOD WILL.

And the value of this Good-Will among our
customers is demonstrated daily by the great number of new customers recommended by the friends
of this store.
